

Duany Plater-Zyberk & Company (DPZ) seeks highly capable and motivated project managers, with positions available at our Miami, Charlotte and Washington D.C. offices. DPZ is celebrating its 25th year as a recognized leader in the practice and direction of the New Urbanism. DPZ has designed over 300 new and existing communities in the US and abroad.

The position includes the following requirements:

- Professional degrees in Architecture and/or Urban Planning are highly desirable and/or experience of five to eight years in a planning or architecture firm or the public sector.
- Strong design abilities and representational skills in architecture and planning.
- Excellent communication and writing skills, to be applied in coordination and production of reports and public relations.
- Research and development abilities, including analysis, editing, and writing of codes for new and existing communities.
- Organizational abilities to be applied while working with senior management to coordinate and organize public design charrettes, completing charrette reports, etc.
- Ability to expedite tasks and work in a team environment.
- Proficiency in computer software.

Annual salary commensurate with candidate's experience. Please fax or e-mail resume and cover letter to Galina Tahchieva, FAX: 305-644-1021, newjobs@dpz.com